

68

Dido is discover'd Sleeping, Cupid Descends.

[2. Recit. Cupid.]

Cupid.

In vain the God of sleep be-stows Rest on fair E-

5

- li - sas Eyes In vain the God of sleep be-stows Rest on fair E - li - sas Eyes,

8

She for the Dar-dan He-ro sighs and now with fan-cy'd Rap - tures, and now with fan - cy'd Rap-tures

11

Gloves, She for the Dar-dan He - ro sighs and now with fan-cy'd Rap - -

14

- tures, and now with fan - cy'd Rap-tures Glows, She now with fan - cy'd Rap-tures Glows.

17

Ve-nus her com-mand has given,Cu-pid Ve-nus must o-bey;

21

Ve - nus who ex-tends her sway To Seas and Air, to Earth and Heaven.

[3.Air. Cupid.]

H. and Two Flutes (3)

(3) Recorders play the upper staves an octave higher; the violins play these staves solo. Oboe doubles violin 1, bassoon doubles the basso continuo.