

1. Let the dreadfull Engines

A Two Part SONG

Henry Purcell

Let the dread-full En-gines of e-ter - nal will, the Thun - -

6
4
5

4
- - - - - derroar, and crook -

4
2
6
7
6

7
- edLight-ning kill; my Rage is hot, is hot, is hot as theirs, as fa -

6
b5

11
- - - tal too, and dares as hor-rid, and dares as

7
4
2
6

14

hor-rid, hor-rid ex - e - cu - tion do:

5 6 4 3 6 6 4 3

17

Or let the Fro-zen North — its ran - - - cour show; with-in my Breast, far,

b

21

far grea - - - ter Tem - pests grow; de - spairs

6 7 6 5 6 5 #3 5 b6

24

— more cold, more cold — than all — the winds can blow.

7 6 b # 7 7 6 5 #3

(1) bar 23: original underlay is shown above the stave