

On Voice & Beauty: A Cantata

from The Flower Garden, London, 1748

Mr. John Broderip

[1.] Recit.

Fair Clo-ris sung; each wond'r ing bird sur-press'd his warb-ling, and re-pair'd at -

4

- ten - tive to th'en-chant-ing sounds; young Col - in harm-less shep-herd,

7 # #

7

came; he heard the voice; his heart's on flame, so sweet -

b # # 5 6

10

- - - - ly mu-sick wounds.

5 6 5 6 5 7

[2. Air.]

Allegro.

[violins]

6 5 6 6

6 5 6

[tr]

For.

"Fly swain, O fly th'har - mon - i - ous grove;

6 7 6 5 6 7 6 7 6

10

6 6

13

[tr]

Fly swain, O fly th'har -

6 6 6 7 6 5 6

16

- mo - ni - ous grove, least Ec - cho_ tune thy_ soul_ to love;

6 7 6